

John Gibeau

Residence New Westminster

Occupation Business in Surrey since 2000

Board Member Since 2015

Background and Contribution

- B.Sc. Biology, MBA Policy Analysis
- Police officer – 16 years (Burnaby RCMP and New Westminster City Police)
 - Co-founder of the first domestic violence response team in B.C.
 - Fundraiser and supporter of Monarch Place transition house
- Started Honeybee Centre in year 2000 – Currently 28 employees
 - Honeybee Centre is a commercial honey farm that supplies 7,000 beehives into local berry fields that produce approximately $100 million in fruit each year
 - Bee World Project co-founder since 2009 – Designed and implemented beekeeping aid projects in Ethiopia, Uganda, Dominican Republic, Haiti, and Cambodia

Other Activities and Community Involvement

- Rotary Club member since 1995 – Past president
- Co-founder of new Kwantlen Polytechnic University commercial beekeeping program
- President, Cloverdale Chamber of Commerce
- Past President, British Columbia Honey Producer’s Association
- Past President, New Westminster Police Officer’s Association