

Jeff Scott

Board Director

Residence	Delta
Occupation	President & CEO, Coastal Pacific Xpress
Board Member	2021

Background and Contribution

Jeff obtained a Bachelor of Commerce Finance from the University of British Columbia. During his university days, he worked for the Port of Vancouver and was encouraged by a colleague to attend British Columbia Institute of Technology's Diploma in Shipping and Marine Operations program.

Jeff was headed to the RCMP when unintentionally, he followed in his father's footsteps and was assigned a work project at Fraser Surrey Docks as part of his second term. He started out as a dispatcher and spent the next 28 years working through all departments and areas of the organization.

During the last 10 years, Jeff was appointed President and CEO at the height of the global financial crisis. He lead the organization through restructuring, diversification, rebuilding and most recently a sale. Jeff stayed on until the end of April 2020.

Jeff joined Coastal Pacific Xpress as President and CEO after their recent divestment from Versacold. Both FSD and CPX are head quartered in Surrey.

Other Activities and Community Involvement

For the last 10 years Jeff has been a director on the Reach Child and Youth Development Foundation where they recently completed a successful capital campaign to build a new $5 million outreach and services facility in downtown Ladner. The new building has allowed them to support more children with special needs and their family.

Jeff has volunteered at local community events and was actively involved as a youth coach for many years in local soccer, baseball and hockey associations.

Previously, Jeff was Chair of the Board of the BC Maritime Employers Association and is currently Chair of the Fraser River Industrial Association advocating for sustainable and responsible economic activity in the Lower Fraser River.

Jeff is a Quantum Shift Fellow for the Ivey Business School and a member of McKay CEO Forums.

Jeff recently obtained the Institute of Corporate Directors designation (ICD.D) from the Rotman School of Management at the University of Toronto.
